Re: United States v. Yoel Engel, 22-cr-148

Dear Judge Karas:

We write to respectfully request permission from Yoel Engel to travel to Florida to spend the upcoming Jewish holiday of Sukkot with his family in Orlando.

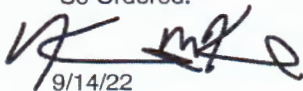

Mr. Engel was indicted in March of this year and charged with one count of wire fraud for allegedly defrauding Verizon Wireless. He was released on a $100,000 personal recognizance bond, co-signed by two FRP's. Under the terms of Mr. Engel's bail, he may not travel outside of SDNY/EDNY/NDNY without permission from the Court.

Mr. Engel would like to drive down to Orlando, Florida and spend the holiday of Sukkot there. Sukkot this year runs from Sunday night October 9 to October 18. Mr. Engel therefore seeks permission to travel to Florida from October 6-20.

I have spoken to both the assigned AUSA AND Mr. Engel's probation officer and neither has any objection to this request. If Your Honor grants this request, Mr. Engel will provide his full itinerary to his probation officer.

Granted, on the condition noted herein.

So Ordered.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Gedalia M. Stern
